

Resolution to Honor the Contributions of Eric Tarpinian-Jachym

Whereas: The Massachusetts Republican Party lost a valued member in the July 1, 2025 death of Eric Tarpinian-Jachym;

Whereas: Eric Tarpinian-Jachym was a bright, earnest, and promising future leader in the Republican Party;

Whereas: Eric Tarpinian-Jachym fulfilled his duties to the people of Kansas through his internship in the office of Congressman Ron Estes (R-KS);

Whereas: Eric Tarpinian-Jachym left indelible impressions in Western Massachusetts' angling community and the University of Massachusetts Amherst;

Whereas: Eric Tarpinian-Jachym's grace, humility, desire to help others, and passion for public service will be dearly missed by his family, friends, and others fortunate to know and work with him;

We the undersigned, therefore,

Resolve: That the Massachusetts Republican State Committee, on behalf of its members, recognizes the significant contributions of Eric Tarpinian-Jachym to the principles of the Republican Party both in Massachusetts and across the nation;

And extends its deepest sympathies to the Jachym family, for whom the loss of their beloved son will leave a hole in their hearts and those of all who knew him.

Submitted on behalf of Republican Massachusetts State Committee by:

Sidney Starks, Republican State Committeeman

Hampden, Hampshire & Worcester District

and

Amy Carnevale, Chairman MassGOP
